About Us

At Amontron, we believe that food is not just sustenance – it's a celebration of tradition, culture, and care. Rooted in the rich agricultural heritage of India, our journey began with a mission to bring farm-fresh purity to every home. We work closely with dedicated farmers to ensure each product is grown naturally and ethically, without compromise. Our strength lies in quality, transparency, and passion.

From wholesome pulses and fragrant spices to premium oils and teas – every item reflects our commitment to excellence. With premium packaging and global reach, Amontron delivers not just products, but a promise of trust and taste.

Amontron Rice

Basmati Rice

Amontron Basmati Rice is long-grained, naturally aromatic, and becomes fluffy when cooked. Ideal for biryanis, pulaos, and celebratory meals, it adds a touch of elegance to your plate. It is sourced from the best farms and hygienically packed to retain purity and freshness.

Gobindobhog Rice

Short-grained and aromatic, this rice is a staple in Bengali kitchens for dishes like khichuri and payesh. It has a buttery aroma and sticky texture that enhances traditional recipes. Amontron brings this delicacy from farm to table with care and consistency.

Miniket Rice

This finely polished rice is soft, light, and perfect for everyday meals. Popular across Eastern India, it offers a gentle texture and mild flavor. Amontron ensures each grain is selected for

Tulaipanji Rice

Native to North Bengal, Tulaipanji Rice is known for its rare floral fragrance and softness. Often reserved for special occasions and traditional feasts.

Amontron Ghee

Made from the finest milk, this golden ghee is full of aroma and nourishment. Ideal for cooking, festive dishes, or as a topping over hot dal and rice. Amontron Desi Ghee reflects purity and rich traditional taste.

Amontron Oil

Cold-pressed mustard seeds create this bold and flavorful oil. Perfect for frying, pickling, and Bengali or North Indian dishes. Amontron delivers strong aroma and natural pungency in every drop

Amontron Poppy Seeds

Tiny white seeds with a nutty flavor, used widely in Indian and Mughlai cuisine. Perfect for thickening gravies, making posto dishes, and traditional sweets. Amontron offers clean, unpolished poppy seeds packed with purity and aroma.

Amontron Sugar

Refined, crystal-clear sugar ideal for everyday use in cooking and beverages. Free-flowing and pure, it dissolves quickly and sweetens consistently. Amontron ensures high-quality granules processed under hygienic conditions.

Amontron Spices

Coriander Powder

Freshly ground from high-quality coriander seeds, it adds a warm, citrusy flavor to dishes. Essential for Indian cooking, it enhances curries, dals, and vegetable preparations. Amontron ensures natural color, strong aroma, and no added fillers.

Turmeric Powder

Vivid in color and rich in curcumin, this turmeric powder is packed with health benefits. It adds flavor, color, and medicinal value to everyday meals. Sourced from premium turmeric roots and finely ground for purity.

Red Chilli Powder

This vibrant red powder adds perfect heat and color to all Indian recipes. Balanced in spice level, it enhances both flavor and visual appeal. Processed with care to retain natural oils and freshness.

Cumin Powder

Warm, earthy, and slightly bitter in flavor, this powder enhances curries, snacks, and chutneys. Ground from the finest cumin seeds to preserve essential oils. Amontron delivers purity and aroma straight from nature.

Tea & Coffee

From the bold, malty strength of Assam CTC to the floral elegance of Darjeeling and the rich depth of Assam Black Tea, Amontron offers teas for every taste. Perfect for traditional milk chai, light black tea, or a refreshing evening brew. Each variant is sourced from premium gardens and packed to preserve freshness, aroma, and strength.

Aromatic instant coffee made from carefully roasted premium beans for a smooth, bold taste. Perfect for hot brews, cold coffee, or adding to desserts. Amontron ensures a strong flavor profile with every spoonful.

Whole Spices

Discover the magic of whole spices raw, aromatic, and bursting with natural flavor. Perfect for grinding fresh or infusing your dishes with unmatched depth and fragrance. Amontron handpicks each spice to preserve its essential oils, taste, and traditional value.

Mixed Dry Fruits

A premium blend of handpicked almonds, cashews, raisins pistachios, and more for wholesome snacking. Perfect for gifting, festive use, or adding to desserts and breakfast bowls. Amontron packs each mix with freshness, crunch, and high nutritional value.

Whole Coriander

Aromatic and citrusy, our whole coriander seeds add depth to tadkas and spice blends. Lightly roasted or ground, they enhance the flavor of curries, pickles, and snacks. Amontron ensures clean, uniform seeds packed with freshness and natural oils.

Whole Cumin

Warm, earthy, and fragrant cumin seeds ideal for tempering, roasting, or dry grinding. Used extensively in Indian, Middle Eastern, and Mexican cuisines. Amontron offers hand-cleaned, sun-dried seeds for pure and bold flavor

White Sesame Seeds

Nutty and crunchy, white sesame is perfect for laddoos, snacks, and seasoning. Rich in calcium and healthy fats, it's great for both taste and nutrition. Amontron packs only clean, uniform seeds with no added polish or chemicals.

Black Sesame Seeds

Bolder and earthier than white sesame, perfect for sweets, Asian dishes, and garnishing. High in antioxidants and minerals, they are both flavorful and nutritious. Amontron ensures minimal processing to retain maximum natural goodness.

Red Chilli

Fiery, sun-dried whole chillies that add intense heat and deep color to your dishes. Perfect for tadka, pickles, and grinding into fresh chilli powder. Amontron selects premium pods for high spice

Panch Phoron

A unique Bengali five-spice blend of fennel, mustard, cumin, fenugreek, and nigella. Used for tempering curries, dals, and stir-fried vegetables. Amontron offers a balanced mix with whole, fresh spices in perfect proportions.

Fennel Seeds

Sweet and refreshing, fennel is perfect for digestion and flavoring sweets, pickles, and teas. A must-have after-meal mouth freshener in Indian households. Amontron fennel seeds are plump, green, and naturally aromatic.

Cardamom

Fragrant, sweet, and highly aromatic – cardamom is a luxury spice for both savory and sweet dishes. Adds magic to teas, biryanis, desserts, and masala blends. Amontron packs large, green pods to lock in aroma and flavor oils.
